

Do Everything Well

This huge fresco behind the Sistine Chapel altar may be the greatest representation of the coming of Christ at the end of time. The centerpiece of the composition is Christ the judge with the Virgin at his side represented in a halo, surrounded by a crowd of apostles, prophets, patriarchs, Old Testament heroines, martyrs, and saints who form a double crown of swirling bodies. Michelangelo painted hundreds of figures, all with exquisite attention to detail.

Just think, when Michelangelo was painting, his work in the chapel was destined to be seen by very few—the pope, his court, a few visiting kings and diplomats at most. The Sistine Chapel would receive less foot traffic in Michelangelo's time than a medium- to small-sized parish today. Yet, Michelangelo painted with the same eye to perfection as if he knew his work would be seen by millions. He was not painting for the multitudes but for God and his patron, the pope.

Similarly, if we act with generosity and love, whether observed by millions or no one, we will follow the path to true freedom and love. We do what is right, not to be seen, but because we want to be true to God, ourselves, and others. Living like this, we will have no reason to fear the Last Judgment.

For Reflection

Do I worry too much about being seen by others?

Do I console myself knowing that no good deed goes unrewarded?

Judgment in person, and countless more via broadcasts and social media. So do everything well, since it is seen by God and yourself—and maybe some day, by more eyes than you ever imagined!

Christmas For The Needy

Project Success in Spring Valley is collecting gifts for boys and girls ages 2 through 8th grade. They are looking for toys, games, building kits, dolls and books. Our boxes will be collected on Thursday, December 6th. Thank you!

New Bereavement Group

Starting November 29th

Losing someone close is always very difficult as it changes our lives totally. So beginning Thursday, November 29th, at 2PM, in the Holy Trinity Hall we will have a bereavement meeting. They will continue periodically for anyone who has lost someone close and is interested in support from our Catholic community.

New Mass Intention Policy For 2019

One of the big problems is fitting in Saturday evening and Sunday Mass intentions for everybody. Also per Canon Law, Father has to offer one Mass a weekend for "The People", also known as a "Pro Populo" Mass, which we rotate between Holy Trinity and St. Thomas More. Starting January 1st, 2019, for all Masses scheduled after that date, we can only accept three (3) Masses per family for Sundays. If we have an opening on a Sunday, we will be keeping a special list to fill spots. All other Masses will have to be for weekday Masses.

RCIA - New Catholic Studies

We are at the time of the year when anyone you may know who would like to become a Catholic can begin studying about the Catholic Faith in anticipation of the Easter Vigil. Please let Fr. Pat know of anyone who might be interested.

For The Week

There are many signs and many words from Jesus Christ which tell us to prepare for His return! Earthquakes are happening all over, hurricanes are doing tremendous damage, and the fires in California have been building and with loss of lives. And we likely haven't seen anything and everything yet! God is tired of dealing with people who don't love Him and have Him at the center of their lives.

So through these events God is saying if He is forgotten our lives on earth don't need to continue. That is the harsh message but very true! One of the reasons we have had the third Monday Mass, the rosary on Wednesday nights at 6pm, and the Divine Mercy on Fridays at 3pm is to pray as a community and ask God for forgiveness. Many people forget that praying as a community is a great way to get God's attention and show we love Him. So join us before it's too late. Have a wonderful and prayerful week!

Dear Padre,

What are the Catholic Church's liturgical seasons? When does a new liturgical year begin?

A liturgical year is an annual cycle of communal prayer and celebration. The Roman Catholic Church divides its liturgical year into five distinct seasons: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and Ordinary Time.

Our liturgical year starts on the first Sunday of Advent. The Christmas season officially starts with the evening celebrations on December 24. Christmas runs for more than twelve days, through the feast of the Epiphany to the Baptism of the Lord, which is celebrated on either the second or third Sunday in January.

Next is Ordinary Time, which is divided into two parts. The first part ends the day before Ash Wednesday, which is the first of the forty days of Lent. Lent is followed by the seven weeks of the Easter season, which ends on the day we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

On Pentecost we pick up the second part of Ordinary Time, which ends the day before the first Sunday of Advent (this year that's in two weeks, on December 2). Each liturgical season has distinct flavors and traditions, but they come together in harmony to help us reflect on the one mystery at the heart of every liturgy no matter the season: the saving mystery of Christ's life, death, and resurrection.

A Word From Pope Francis

If in the course of the liturgical year a parish priest speaks about temperance ten times but only mentions charity or justice two or three times, an imbalance results....The same thing happens when we speak more about law than about grace, more about the Church than about Christ.
