

Bringing Jesus to Our Work and Prayer

Jesus enjoyed resting in the home of his friends Lazarus, Martha, and Mary because of their affection and hospitality. Martha was a big part of this hospitality because she was energetic and dedicated to making sure Jesus was cared for. Mary made him feel at home differently, as she was hungry for the Lord's teaching. She was open, interested, and attentive.

Yet on this occasion Martha is overcome with the urgent and leaves aside the important. Martha receives Christ in her home while Mary brings him into her heart. Living in relationship with Jesus always includes these two elements. Part of our love for him involves sitting at his feet in prayer. This is no doubt the "better part." Yet, serving Jesus also requires an active, busy life of work and responsibilities. Far from being an obstacle, work should be an occasion for a closer relationship with Jesus.

The key is having a unifying center to life; that center should be Jesus. He is the "why" we do what we do—whether work, play, or pray. Martha wasn't mistaken in serving Jesus' needs, but she lost focus with anxiety and worries. How to maintain this focus? First, pray regularly to remain centered. Second, don't worry about the small things at work or home. Third, frequently redirect your intention with a short, motivating motto like, "All for you, my Jesus" or "Your kingdom come!" Find one that works for you.

Let's not lose sight of the Lord of our work when doing the work of the Lord.

For The Week

From Jesus, "The spirit of sexual impurity is a demonic bondage that enters the generations by a curse of impurity of your ancestors. The sexual impurity is the strong spirit that opens the spiritual door for other unclean spirits to enter such as homosexuality, prostitution, adultery, fornication, lust, masturbation, incest, abortion, pornography and the other impure spirits.

If you pray my children, for your paternal and maternal family tree and offer Me, in every Holy Eucharist, for 33 days in a row at the time of elevation, the curses of sexual impurity of your generations, I assure you that I will deliver you from these impure spirits, so that you will no longer see impurity in your generations. Do praying, fasting and penance, during the days you attend my 33 Eucharists, so that these impure spirits may be weakened and you to be delivered faster. "May God always be with us!

Dear Padre,

Our son and his fiancée, both Catholic, are talking about getting married in the Church. What are recent changes since our daughter's wedding a decade ago?

The rite, now called The Order of Celebrating Matrimony, was revised in 2016 for weddings celebrated in English within the United States. Some of the changes at a Mass when two Catholics marry include:

- An expansion of Scripture selections to choose for the celebration, with at least one reading explicitly speaking of marriage
- The addition of the Gloria (sung or recited)
- An assembly's response following the couple's reception of consent
- After the final blessing, the marriage record may be signed in the sacristy or in the presence of the assembly (but not on the altar)

Moreover, adaptations include the English translation of the texts to accompany the optional use of the arras (coins) and lazo (veil) for one or both spouses with Hispanic or Filipino cultural backgrounds.

"A Marriage that is desired, prepared for, celebrated, and lived daily in the light of faith is that which is 'joined by the Church, strengthened by a sacrificial offering, sealed by a blessing, announced by Angels, and ratified by the Father...."

How wonderful the bond of the two believers: one in hope, one in vow, one in discipline, one in the same service!....Indeed, they are two in one flesh; where there is one flesh, there is also one spirit" (The Order of Celebrating Matrimony).

A Word from Pope Francis

It is normal for a husband and wife to quarrel....Perhaps you were mad, perhaps plates flew, but please remember this: never let the sun go down without making peace! Never, never, never!....For if you let the day end without making peace, the next day what is inside of you is cold and hardened.
