

A Call from the Wild

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Sometimes, as if by divine instinct, life draws us into new and uncharted lands, a kind of “call of the wild.” It happens when we leave childhood, when (if) we leave the single life, and when we grieve the loss of love or health. The call, then, is also to trust that God will walk with us and show us the way through the coming wilderness.

At other times that wild divine instinct is to go where we would rather not go, but somehow we also sense we must, if for no other reason than to be true to ourselves. It happened to Jesus, as this week’s Gospel begins with our Lord picking up where John the Baptist left off. “When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee....From that time on he began to preach” (Matthew 4:12, 17). Who could know where that divine instinct would lead him?

Sometimes that call pulls us into what life needs at this moment, whether we choose it or not. It may come in the face of the premature death of a spouse that finds us raising a young family alone, or it may be an aging spouse’s needs that require us to be a caregiver. It may be the daily grind of a job we can’t stand but have to keep for one reason or another, or it may be no job at all that forces us to reorganize our lives. The call of God may come out of the blue and from the many wilds of life. ●

Reflect

Have you ever felt called to go where you did not want to go?

How did faith help you decide what to do?

As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers....He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him.

PASTORAL PLAN FOR THE DIOCESE OF PEORIA

On Wednesday, August 3, 2022, Bishop Louis Tylka announced the Diocese of Peoria is embarking on a two-year pastoral planning process "to move further into the mission which Christ has given us: to go make disciples." The initiative called "Growing Disciples" will assess the current network of parishes and schools "so that we can not only meet the ministry challenges of today, but we can also grow a vibrant, sustainable mission-driven Church for the future," says Bishop Tylka.

The goals of "Growing Disciples" are outlined as follows: 1/ enhancing the vibrancy of our parishes, schools, and ministries; 2/ increasing support of the happiness, health, and holiness of our priests; and 3/ enabling the faithful to go make disciples within a mission-driven, sustainable structure of parishes and schools.

To further our three churches members' comprehension of the above important operation, we have made copies of the "Growing Disciples" process, which had been sent to us from the bishop's office. Please remember to take a copy home and read it. More news of "Growing Disciples" will follow as the process moves forward.

Dear Padre,

Could you explain “lead us not into temptation” from the Lord’s Prayer? That doesn’t seem like something God would do.

Part of the problem lies in the translation of the Greek verb. Lead is the word used, but it means a request that we not enter into or yield to temptation (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2846). As we read in the Letter of James, “No one experiencing temptation should say, ‘I am being tempted by God’; for God is not subject to temptation to evil, and he himself tempts no one” (James 1:13).

Pope Francis agrees with you that this translation is confusing. He has approved changing this one line of the Lord’s Prayer from “lead us not into temptation” to “do not let us fall into temptation.” This wording places the focus on us and our activity, as the original Greek implies. It is a plea that we do nothing to put ourselves in the way of temptation or give in to temptation.

This change will appear in the latest edition of the Italian Roman Missal, but there are no plans now to change the wording in English-speaking countries. If you would like to read more about the Lord’s Prayer, the Catechism includes an article that goes into a lot of detail (CCC 2777–2865). ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

I beg the Lord to grant us more politicians who are... disturbed by the state of society, the people, the lives of the poor! It is vital that government leaders and financial leaders...[work] to ensure that all citizens have dignified work, education, and health care. Why not...ask [God] to inspire their plans?
