All Saints Day

All Souls Day

November is the month dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory as we recognize the dogma of our Holy Catholic Faith, the Communion of the Saints, which we profess a belief in every time we pray the Apostles' Creed. You may gain a plenary indulgence for the Holy Souls in Purgatory by going to the cemetery and praying for the dead from November 1st through November 8th. This indulgence can be gained on each one of these days.

Mission Appeal for Tanzania: Thank you and God bless everyone who donated to the Mission Appeal for Tanzania. You may continue to donate through Sunday November 22, 2026 to this appeal.

Buildings and Repairs: We will be installing 2 new furnaces and doing some roof repairs on one of the parish halls within the coming weeks. The expenses for these different repairs will be $12,500. If anyone wants to donate to help cover the cost of these repairs, you can put a donation in an envelope marked:
"Building Repairs." Thank you.

Fall Clean-up: We are looking for volunteers to help clean-up various things within the parish grounds. We will need to clean gutter lines. However, I would like to wait until after most of the leaves have fallen. If anyone, especially younger parishioners, are willing to help, please call the parish office and give us your name and phones number so that we may contact you when we can arrange days to do these chores.

Ravs/Torts for Thanksgiving/Christmas Dinner: Anyone wanting to serve Ravens/Torts at their Thanksgiving/Christmas Dinner are reminded to place your orders quickly so that our wonderful Twisters may do the "twist" enough before the holiday to fulfill your orders. You may place an order by calling: 815-252-2215
