

From “Our Lady of Carmel”

July 16, 2020

Little ones, always carry with you my Scapular, worn around your neck, because it is a mighty Armor of protection against the evil one and the forces of evil. My blessed and exorcised Scapular is terror for demons; no soul shall be condemned, for as great as his sins are, if he carries my scapular with him at the hour of death. The protection of my Scapular will protect you both in this world and in eternity; it will deliver you from the eternal death; always carry it with you and when you feel in danger, say:

“O Virgin of Carmel, may the power of your Holy Scapular take away from me the enemy of my soul; bless me, Mother of Carmel, and deliver me from all evil and danger in this world. I ask you O Mother, that in the hour of my death, your Holy Scapular frees me from the fury of the devil and in the eternity, of the eternal fire. Amen.”
